

Lexibook® presents its all-new LexiTab® tablets with Frozen 2 and Toy Story 4 accessories.

Lexibook unveils its LexiTab® Master tablet, a new tech device for kids that will bring joy and excitement for Christmas 2019.

Designed for kids 6-14, the LexiTab® Master offers more than a simple tablet. Featuring a 7" screen and Android™ operating system, it ensures a worry-free and responsible experience thanks to its child interface with parental controls.

The LexiTab® Master comes in two limited-edition bundles featuring Frozen 2 and Toy Story 4 accessories. Each bundle includes a protective pouch and a stereo headset that is foldable and with kids-safe volume limitation to protect the ears. To enjoy the tablet with style, at home or on the go, all these accessories come in the colours of Anna, Elsa and Olaf or Woody, Buzz and Forky. Featuring their favourite heroes, it's an attractive all-in-1 package to delight the fans of these must-see Disney and Pixar movies.

The LexiTab® Master also includes a 100% new kids interface, with a refined design and extra protection thanks to its parental controls (time of use and apps management) and night filter. For added security, each LexiTab® comes with the Qwant Junior internet browser that respects the privacy of its users and filters out inappropriate websites.

On the content side, all LexiTab® integrate a complete suite of fun and educational applications, to extend class learning (dictation, history, mathematics ...), improve kids' general knowledge and encourage them to read. For even more fun learning, users can also get unlimited content from the Google Play™ store.

The LexiTab® Master bundles are available at selected retailers and online stores, at a suggested retail price of £124.99.
